

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

In the Matter of)
ADMISSION FEES OF ATTORNEYS)

ORDER

At its meeting on September 23, 1997, the Judicial Conference of the United States directed the Administrative Office of the United States Courts to inform courts that:

- 1) the $50 attorney admission fee prescribed in Item 11 of the District Court Miscellaneous Fee Schedule, promulgated pursuant to 28 U.S.C. section 1914, does not apply to pro hac vice requests or renewals of attorney admissions;
- 2) local courts may charge, at their option, a local fee above the $50 fee for original admission of attorneys to practice before this Court;
- 3) local courts may charge, at their option, a fee for pro hac vice admissions;
and
- 4) revenues from such local fees may be deposited into a district court's Library Fund, which is used for projects which benefit the bar and the administration of justice.

Accordingly, to further the benefit the bar and the administration of justice, the Court has determined that the attorney admission fee in this District shall be $60, with $50 of that fee to be deposited into the U.S. Treasury and $10 to be deposited into this Court's Library Fund. The Court also has established a fee of $30 per request to be admitted pro hac vice, with such fee in its entirety to be deposited into the Court's Library Fund. The modification of fees as set forth herein shall be effective January 1, 1998.

SO ORDERED THIS 24th day of November 1997.
